Teenager armed with knife chased man through shopping centre

A KNIFE-wielding teenager was locked up for 18 months after chasing a man through a Romford shopping centre.

Arkeem Cabey, 19, of Meadow Close, Barking, was sentenced following the incident in The Brewery on Sunday, April 29.

Cabey pulled a knife on a man during a dispute on the first floor of the shopping centre.

Brandishing the blade, he chased the man into a nearby McDonald's restaurant.

CCTV footage of the chase showed families fleeing in terror as Cabey stalked his victim.

After multiple unsuccessful attempts to corner the man Casey fled, discarding the knife in the process.

Police arrived on the scene and arrested Casey. The knife was found nearby.

Acting Detective Inspector Dean Grafton, of the East Area Command Unit, said: "Cabey's actions, which took place in a public place where numerous families with children were enjoying an evening out, were utterly abhorrent."

"Armed with a large knife, he pursued his victim for a sustained period of time showing absolutely no regard for the safety and wellbeing of those around him."

On his arrest, Cabey admitted to officers that he had been in possession of the knife for his own safety but when interviewed in police custody he refused to say anything further, a Met spokesperson said.

The victim has not been identified. Cabey pleaded guilty to threatening a person with a blade in a public place at Snaresbrook Crown Court on May 30.

He was sentenced to 18 months' imprisonment at the same court on Friday, June 8.

Mr Grafton added: "Knife crime will not be tolerated and thanks to the swift actions of officers from Romford Town Centre, an off duty officer and members of the public, Cabey was arrested."

"Good work during the subsequent investigation by the CID ensured Cabey was made to face the consequences of his actions."

CHURCH IN CASH PROBE

By Rachael Burford

BBC local democracy reporter

A CHURCH run by a group which has offered "dangerous gay cure therapy" is being investigated by the Charity Commission.

Mountain of Fire and Miracles Ministries International (MFM) "repeatedly failed to submit returns and financial information on time", the watchdog said.

The church claims to "propagate the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ" on its website.

Its head office is based in Nigeria, but the church has branches across the UK and east and north London – including one based out of Northbury Primary School in Barking and another in Stamford Road, Dagenham.

Last year a Liverpool Echo investigation found the church's Anfield branch was offering "conversion therapy".

CONCERNS: The Charity Commission is investigating Mountain of Fire and Miracles Ministries International which has a branch in Stamford Road, Dagenham

An undercover reporter was offered a "three-day programme involving not eating or drinking" to "cure homosexuality".

The Charity Commission said it has been made aware of "potentially significant losses" to the church, which operates from approximately 40 separate branches, and was worried trustees had "failed to promptly report serious incidents to police".

In a statement it said: "The charity has repeatedly failed to submit returns and financial information to the commission on time and its accounts for 2014 and 2015 were qualified by its auditors."

"The commission has been in active engagement with the trustees of the charity since September 2017 having been made aware of potentially significant losses to the charity. The commission is concerned about the apparent failures within the administration and management of the charity which have resulted in an environment in which such losses could occur, and continued to occur over a prolonged period."

MFM branches have some freedom over finances but the Commission said it was concerned about the trustees' control over them.

It added: "The commission has identified concerns as to the adequacy of the trustees' oversight and control over the individual branches."

"The commission also has concerns about the trustees' failure to promptly report serious incidents to the commission and to the police."

MFM did not respond to a request for comment.

Council changes gear to sign deal with new dockless bike-hire firm

MELLOW YELLOW: Ofo bicycles, above and right, will replace provider Urbo's in Waltham Forest next month

A DOCKLESS bike-hire company will be withdrawing from Waltham Forest as the council announces a partnership with a rival company.

Urbo announced it will no longer be providing shared bike services in Waltham Forest and Redbridge.

The Irish company plans to withdraw its services from July 4.

A spokesman for Urbo said: "We would like to thank all of you who have supported Urbo and we hope to be able to offer services within these areas again in the future."

Waltham Forest Council has announced a deal with Chinese provider ofo, which already operates in a number of east London boroughs including Redbridge.

Dockless bike hire was introduced to Waltham Forest in October 2017.

Since then more than 2,000 people have downloaded the mobile app and made almost 6,000 journeys.

The council has ended the current trial with Urbo – citing an inability for the company to match demand – and will now work alongside ofo.

Cllr Clyde Loakes, deputy leader and cabinet member for the environment, said: "Our initial venture into dockless bike hire has shown that they are incredibly popular with our residents, staff and visitors and we choose the right method of having some central hubs, like our busiest train stations, where users could pick up a bike and go.

"However, following the recent takeover of Urbo we have seen that the company has been unable to keep up with the demands of our residents, so we have taken the decision to welcome ofo into the borough as soon as possible."

Joseph Seal-Driver, ofo's UK general manager, said: "We're thrilled to bring our dockless bikes to Waltham Forest.

"Over the past year we've really taken off across the capital and these launches show the increasing popularity of bike sharing in London.

"We will be working very closely with Waltham Forest Council to ensure ofo's roll-out goes as smoothly as possible and to provide the best experience for residents.

"We are looking forward to seeing our distinctive yellow bikes on the streets giving people a fun, cheap and environmentally friendly way to get around."

Water shambles

LAST week, it was revealed that Oak Hill in Walthamstow suffered 33 water leaks between November 2011 and February 2018. This is atrocious and yet, sadly, not surprising when you consider that London pipes have burst or leaked 36,000 times during the same period.

It was unsurprising to see Ofwat hand out £120million in fines to Thames Water after its disastrous handling of a surge in incidents across London.

We have heard appalling accounts from Londoners who have seen their lives disrupted or businesses hit by leaks.

Some have had their properties flooded, whilst others have had their water supply cut.

Thames Water has pledged some compensation to customers, but this small recompense is the very least customers deserve given the inconvenience and upheaval many have endured.

A senior Thames Water official recently remarked that "money is not an issue" with regard to fixing longstanding problems with the capital's water supply.

If that is the case, there is no excuse for Thames Water to not raise its game.

I want to see them take more stringent action to improve their emergency procedures and put a stop to these seemingly endless leaks.

Ford women share their stories of the fight for equal pay

BARKING and Dagenham Council paid tribute to women involved in the Dagenham Ford strike as the 50th anniversary of the dispute approaches.

On June 28, 1968 187 women workers went on strike over pay inequality.

The Dagenham Ford Sewing Machinists' strike was a major factor in the introduction of the Equal Pay Act of 1970, making it illegal to pay men and women differently for the same job.

On June 8 the council invited guests including girls from two schools to the Civic Centre in Dagenham.

Some of the original striking women – Dora Challingsworth, Pam Brown and Geraldine Wiseman – gave a short testimony at the event.

Women who were involved in the Halewood Motor Plant strike in Liverpool were also invited.

Council leader, Cllr Darren Rodwell and Steve Rotherham, Mayor of Liverpool City Region, paid tribute to all involved.

The East End Women's Museum co-founder Sarah Jackson also made a special presentation titled Bread money, not pin money: The struggle for equal pay.

Cllr Rodwell said: "I was honoured to be part of such a memorable day and delighted that women who took part in the strike were able to share their stories and ensure they are heard by a new generation. We should never underestimate the courage of these women. Fighting for equal pay in 1968 was not a popular cause. Not only were they taking on Ford, but they took on the Government, some members of their union, and men in their workplace who didn't agree with their action. We must do all we can to promote gender equality."

TRIBUTE: Former strikers, council staff, councillors, MP Jon Cruddas and Cllr Darren Rodwell at the Dagenham Ford strike event

Lanzini crocked!

Hammers star to miss World Cup and much of next season with heartbreaking anterior cruciate ligament injury

Football

WEST HAM's Manuel Lanzini is likely to be out of action for most of next season after suffering a serious knee injury in training with the Argentina World Cup squad on Friday.

The 25-year-old helped West Ham climb the Premier League table in 2018, but is now set to miss the World Cup and a large part of the 2018/19 domestic season.

Argentina said on Twitter on Friday: "Manuel Lanzini suffered, in today's morning training, the rupture of the anterior cruciate ligament of his right knee."

Lanzini, who scored five goals in 29 appearances for the Hammers in 2017-18, has made three appearances for Argentina, scoring his first goal in March's 2-0 victory over Italy.

Argentina are in Group D at Russia 2018, beginning their campaign against Iceland on June 16. They meet Croatia on June 21 and Nigeria on June 26.

At time of going to press West Ham had not commented on the player's injury or whether new team boss Manuel Pellegrini would be allowed the money to sign a replacement.

Meanwhile, West Ham have agreed a deal to sign right-back Ryan Fredericks from Premier League new boys Fulham.

The 25-year-old will pen a four-year contract to become Pellegrini's first signing when his present terms with Fulham expire on July 1.

"We've been speaking about it for a while and trying to get things in place and finally, we've got it over the line," Fredericks told the Hammers' official website. "It's amazing for this deal to finally happen."

"West Ham United is one of the biggest clubs in the Premier League. Everyone knows the history of West Ham and there are a lot of factors that brought me to the club."

"Obviously, it's an exciting time for West Ham. The club have just brought in a new manager in Manuel Pellegrini and everyone knows his CV and what he has done in England before and in other leagues as well. I'm sure I can learn a lot from him."

"It just felt like, for the next step of my career, I would be best suited coming here."

Fredericks was named in the PFA Championship Team of the Year for his performances throughout the 2017-18 season, which concluded with Fulham winning promotion to the top flight via the play-off final.

He will vie for selection with Pablo Zabaleta, once at Manchester City with Pellegrini, and the manager added: "I am very pleased to welcome Ryan as our first signing this summer. He joins having had a successful season with Fulham and is a player who will bring great qualities to our squad."

"He has good experience, with more than 150 senior appearances already but, at 25, he is still a young player with his best years ahead of him."

"Ryan has good character, is hungry to succeed, and has shown me that he has great desire to be a West Ham United player. I look forward to working with him."

Non-league round-up

Taylor named new Daggers boss

By Brian Jeeves

NATIONAL League outfit, Dagenham & Redbridge, have named Peter Taylor and Terry Harris as their new managerial team.

The pair replace John Still, who quit the club to take a similar role with Barnet.

Taylor brings a wealth of experience to Victoria Road, having been involved in the game for more than 50 years. The 65-year-old most notably managed England on an interim basis back in 2000 and was responsible for handing David Beckham the captaincy.

Taylor also managed England's under 21 side during two separate spells as well as taking the reins at a number of clubs, including Southend United, Crystal Palace – both of which he played for – Gillingham, Hull City, Wycombe Wanderers, Brighton & Hove Albion, Bradford City and Stevenage.

Former Daggers player, Harris, will work alongside Taylor having left his post at Boreham Wood. This will be his fourth spell with the Daggers. He has also worked at Luton Town.

Billerica Town continue to reshape their squad ahead of the 2018/19 National South campaign with the signing of experienced defender, Rickie Hayles, from Dulwich Hamlet and Callum Kennedy from AFC Wimbledon. Hayles, 28, arrives at the AGP Arena having also previously represented a host of clubs, including AFC Hornchurch, Canvey Island and East Thurrock United.

Speaking to the BTFC official website about the move, Hayles said: "To be honest, it's a club that I see to be on the up, looking to go somewhere and keep progressing."

Defender Kennedy made 81 appearances for the Wombles during two separate spells. The Chertsey-born player also gleaned a host of Football League experience with Swindon Town, Gillingham, Rotherham United, Scunthorpe United and Leyton Orient.

Town also announced that Josh Mcleod has parted company with the club. Meanwhile, a number of pre-season fixtures have been published.

The list is as follows:

July
Tuesday 10 – Basildon United (A) 7.45pm
Saturday 14 – Ebbsfleet United (A) 3pm
Monday 16 – Aveley (A) 7.45pm
Friday 20 – Cambridge United (H) 7.45pm
Monday 23 – Walthamstow (A) 7.45pm
Saturday 28 – Biggleswade Town (A) 3pm

The Concord Rangers revolution continues with manager, Sammy Moore, moving quickly to snap up striker, Matthew Neary.

Neary links up with the Beach Boys having previously represented Sky Bet Championship side Millwall. The 18-year-old arrives at the Aspect Arena after four years at The Den.

Speaking to the club's official website, Neary said: "I am delighted to come sign for a club like this which is building strength and such a strong team together to push the league this coming season."

"It is going to be really good for me and my career to be working alongside some good talented players in this squad. I can't wait to get going."

Basildon United manager Marc Harrison was delighted to have added experienced defender, Eljay Worrell, to his newly promoted Bostik North side.

Worrell, who arrives at the Ho Ho Stadium from Redbridge, became the latest piece in the Bees' jigsaw.

The player also previously plied his trade with Billericay Town, AFC Sudbury and Grays Athletic.

Harrison pointed out to Yellow Sport that this was a real signing of intent.

"Eljay is a player who we really think can push onto another level," the Bees chief explained.

"He has all the attributes to do very well. We have identified where we wanted to strengthen the squad and Eljay will bring a lot to this group."

Harrison has added further to his squad, bringing in Remi Nelson and Joe Turpin. Nelson arrives from Essex Senior League outfit, Redbridge. The midfielder has also represented Romford and Bethnal Green.

Central defender, Turpin, joined the New Towners from Tilbury having featured at both under 23 and first-team level for the Dockers. He is seen as a perfect fit as the Bees look to establish themselves at Isthmian League level.

Kane commits long-term future to Spurs

ENGLAND captain Harry Kane has committed his future to Tottenham by signing a new six-year contract.

The 24-year-old striker's agreement sees him extend his stay with Spurs until 2024 and follows manager Mauricio Pochettino extending his own deal until 2023.

Kane's commitment comes as a welcome boost for Spurs, who made the announcement with footage of their new stadium.

Tottenham are due to return to a redeveloped White Hart Lane next season after spending their last campaign as tenants at Wembley Stadium.

Tottenham said on Twitter: "We are delighted to announce that @HKane has signed a new six-year contract with the club, which runs until 2024."

Kane scored 30 goals in the recently completed Premier League season, when Spurs finished third, and finished with a total of 41 goals in all competitions. He has passed 20 goals in each of the last four seasons.

Kane has previously been linked with moves to Manchester United and Real Madrid, but the latest agreement shows he sees his future at Spurs.

Pochettino has also been linked with Real, with his five-year deal signed a week before Zinedine Zidane announced his departure from the Bernabéu.

Born in Walthamstow, Kane is a product of Spurs' academy. He attended Chingford Foundation School, where David Beckham had also been a pupil years before.

He made his debut in an August 2011 Europa League tie with Hearts and has had loan spells at Leyton Orient, Millwall, Norwich and Leicester.

He is now Tottenham's leading scorer in the Premier League era, surpassing Teddy Sheringham's club record of 97.

He netted 56 goals for Spurs and England in the 2017 calendar year.

That saw Kane break Alan Shearer's calendar year record for Premier League goals, with 39, including back-to-back hat-tricks against Burnley and Southampton at the end of the year.

He has scored a total of 108 goals in 153 Premier League appearances.

Kane was last month named England captain for the Russia 2018 World Cup.

He made his England debut in March 2015 against Lithuania and has scored 13 goals in 24 England appearances.

All five of Kane's appearances as captain have come under Gareth Southgate.
